St. James's, April 25.

THE following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Reverend Dr. Adams, Maſter of King's College, and Vice-Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge, accompanied by ſeveral Heads of Houſes and Perſons of Quality, who had formerly been Members of that Body, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty with the greateſt Joy, upon the happy Concluſion of a Peace, and the Securing of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, whereof we have the fulleſt Aſſurances from that perfect Friendſhip which there is between Your Majeſty and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which we hope no Artifices will ever be able to impair.

If the conquering Difficulties increaſes Glory, how many has Your Majeſty met withal in this important Affair, ſuch as nothing but Your unalterable Deſire of the Good of Your Kingdoms, and the Happineſs of Europe could have overcome? With what Courage, Conſtancy and Conduct have Your able and faithful Miniſtry preſs'd through all Oppoſition, to finiſh a Work ſo advantageous to Your People, and ſo agreeable to Your Generous and Compaſſionate Nature.

The Victories Your Majeſty has obtained have always found ſome Allay from the Loſs of the Braveſt of Your Subjects, and the Miſeries of ſo great a Part of Mankind; but to give Peace and Liberty to ſo many Nations, to extend the Bounds of Your Empire farther than ever has been done by all Your warlike Predeceſſors, to defend and promote by ſo many ways that Holy Religion which You adorn, to put ſo many Thouſands into a Condition of being Happy in ſpight of themſelves: Theſe muſt be the moſt delightful Triumphs to ſo Gracious a Princeſs, and the moſt glorious Trophies of Your auſpicious Reign.

Nor can we doubt of theſe Bleſſings being confirmed to Poſterity, when Your Majeſty is ſo piouſly concern'd to put an End to the Licentiouſneſs of the Preſs, from whence ſo much Blaſphemy and Sedition have been ſcatter'd of late with daring Inſolence.

May the moſt Obſtinate and moſt Ungrateful at length acknowledge Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Conduct, Your Juſtice to Your Allies, Your moſt tender Regard for all Your People, and join with us in praying for the long Continuation of that Life, which is ſuch a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, and of ſo much Importance to the whole World.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt Gracious Anſwer.

YOur Addreſs is very acceptable, and eſpecially the Concern you expreſs for Our Religion.

I ſhall always be ready to ſhew Marks of My Favour to thoſe Learned Bodies, which are particularly ſet apart to promote Piety and Loyalty.

Coire, April 11. N. S. The Swiſs Regiment of Diesbach, conſiſting at preſent of about Six hundred Men, paſs'd lately through this Place in their way from the Milaneſe to the Low Countries. This Paſſage was granted at the Deſire of the States-General, tho' it had been reſolved here to let none of the Emperor's Troops march through our Territories, till the States had received Satisfaction in relation to the Treaty of Paſſage. The Baron de Grenth, his Imperial Majeſty's Envoy to this Republick, is gone to Milan, to pay his Duty to the Empreſs as She paſſes through that City in her return to Vienna. They write from Bern, that the French are buying great Numbers of Horſes in thoſe Parts, and that they have Commiſſions to procure above Four thouſand.

Berlin, April 22. N. S. On the 16th Monſieur Viereck arrived here with the Treaty of Peace, and on the 18th he ſet out again, in order to return to Utrecht with the King's Ratification. The next Day his Majeſty went to Wyſterhauſen, and is expected in Town this Evening. Count Denhoff, Under-Chamberlain of Lithuania, is arrived here from King Auguſtus, to Compliment his Majeſty upon the Death of his Father, and his own Acceſſion to the Crown, and to Morrow he is to have an Audience. A great many of the Nobility, as alſo the Deputies of the Towns in this Province, are come hither to take the Oath of Allegiance, and to aſſiſt at the late King's Funeral.

Hanover, April 28. N. S. The Emperor's Troops in the Dioceſs of Hildeſheim, that were commanded to the Low Countries, are now ordered to March towards the Rhine. It is reported here, that his Imperial Majeſty is reſolved to continue the War, and that ſeveral Princes of the Empire have offer'd to aſſiſt him with Troops. The Princeſs of Bevern intended to have met the Empreſs, her Siſter, before ſhe arrived at Vienna, but as ſhe is big with Child, the Duke of Wolfenbuttel hath diſſuaded her from ſo great a Journey. Letters from Huſum bring an Account, that the Miſunderſtanding encreaſes between the Danes and the Muſcovites. The Muſcovites complain that the Danes let them have no Share in the Contributions they raiſe, and the Danes ſhew great diſſatisfaction at the Diſorders committed by the Muſcovites. Theſe Differences add very much to the Obſtacles the Allies meet with in attacking the Entrenchments of the Swedes. Baron Goertz, Miniſter of the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, hath been negotiating a Treaty between the Two Parties, and it was propoſed, that Count Steinbock ſhould be tranſported to Sweden, with the Forces under his Command, but the Confederates inſiſt that they ſhould leave their Arms and Horſes behind when they embark, ſo that it is not yet known whether they will come to any Agreement.

Hague, May 3. N. S. On the 27th paſt, the States of Holland and Weſt Frieſland aſſembled, and on the part of their Province, ratify'd the Treaty of Peace ſign'd by the Dutch Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht. They ordered their Conſent to be communicated to the States-General, deſiring at the ſame time, that the general Ratification of the Seven Provinces ſhould be exchanged as ſoon as poſſible, the other Six having already tranſmitted theirs. It is thought the States will continue their Seſſion for ſome time longer, in order to reduce the Troops in their Pay, to make another Lottery for raiſing ten Millions of Guilders, and to regulate other Affairs of the Province. The Earl of Strafford came hither ſome Days ago, and hath had ſeveral Conferences with the Grand Penſionary, and other Deputies of the States General. The Imperial
